44	P3-P4	English	Verse	A Fairy Song William Shakespeare	Over hill, over dale, Thorough bush, thorough brier, Over park, over pale, Thorough flood, thorough fire! I do wander everywhere, Swifter than the moon's sphere; And I serve the Fairy Queen, To dew her orbs upon the green; The cowslips tall her pensioners be; In their gold coats spots you see; Those be rubies, fairy favours; In those freckles live their savours; I must go seek some dewdrops here, And hang a pearl in every cowslip's ear.
45	P5-P6	English	Verse	Friendship P. Pranav Karthik	The greatest ship is friendship And it is a part of life top We feel happy with friends As they improve our trends Some fights may appear Soon it will disappear Friends we have more The life will not be sour The more friends you join in a second It may become a legend The friend we have best There will be more tests With friends if you form a greatest group. No one is there to beat your finest troop The friendship you create very bigger Your life will be more sweeter

46	S1-S3	English	Verse	Song by Louise Glück	Like a protected heart, the blood-red flower of the wild rose begins to open on the lowest branch, supported by the netted mass of a large shrub: it blooms against the dark which is the heart' s constant backdrop, while flowers higher up have wilted or rotted; to survive adversity merely deepens its color. But John objects, he thinks if this were not a poem but an actual garden, then the red rose would be required to resemble nothing else, neither another flower nor the shadowy heart, at earth level pulsing half maroon, half crimson.
